Reason to Believe (RTB)

Shi Studio blends creativity with professionalism, offering designs that connect with audiences and stand the test of time.

Target Audience

My target audience is a 25-year-old single female YouTuber who owns a studio, and I am tasked with creating a logo for her studio.

Competitor Comparison

Here, I want to compare Shi Studio with 3 studios such as Fireart Studio, Warsaw Styles, and Super Super Studio:

Target Clients: Fireart focuses on tech startups and digital products, Warsaw Styles targets corporations needing strategic branding, and Super Super Studio serves creative industries. Shi Studio positions itself for mid-sized businesses and creative individuals seeking bold, personalized designs.

Core Strengths: Fireart excels in UI/UX design, Warsaw Styles in strategic branding, and Super Super Studio in artistic, experimental work. Shi Studio combines artistic creativity with functional solutions, delivering impactful and meaningful designs.

Approach: Fireart adopts a tech-driven, user-focused method, Warsaw Styles follows professional research-based strategies, and Super Super Studio focuses on bold and collaborative creativity. Shi Studio emphasizes a hands-on, collaborative process, ensuring both strategic and visually engaging outcomes.

Reputation & Client Relationships: Fireart is known internationally for digital expertise, Warsaw Styles for corporate branding, and Super Super Studio for boundary-pushing designs. Shi Studio can build a reputation as a reliable, emerging studio, balancing creativity and trust-driven client relationships.

Price Range: Fireart operates in the mid-to-high range, Warsaw Styles in the premium corporate market, and Super Super Studio offers flexible premium pricing. Shi Studio positions itself in the mid-range, offering affordable, high-quality design solutions.

Shi Studio sets itself apart with a unique blend of creativity, affordability, and client-focused collaboration, catering to growing businesses and creative markets.

LOGO

Brand Logo

The Shi Studio logo represents my work as a graphic designer and the identity of my studio. Simple and professional, it's designed for versatility, ensuring consistency across different platforms. The logo reflects the values of creativity, precision, and innovation, forming the foundation for a strong and recognizable brand as the studio evolves.

Logo Meaning

The Shi Studio logo draws from the first part of my name, "Shima," with "Shi" also representing "she," symbolizing femininity. The design incorporates the letters "S" and "h" and "i" to form the shape of a woman's face and hair, while the red dot of the "i" represents the cheek, adding a personal and symbolic touch to the logo.

Logo Size

To ensure visibility and Legibility, Logos Should Never be Presented in Sizes smaller than the requirements

50 pixels is the lowest minimum size for my Logo.

Safe Zone

It is important to maintain proper spacing.

Variation

The Shi Studio logo has three variations: the original in black, white, and red; one for dark backgrounds; and one for light backgrounds, ensuring versatility and clarity across various platforms.

Pattern

The pattern is created by repeating and reshaping the Shi Studio logo, adding a dynamic and creative touch. This pattern reflects the studio's design approach, bringing the logo to life in various forms.

COLORS

Primary colors

The primary colors for Shi Studio are black, white, and red. These minimal colors reflect the logo's simplicity and elegance, with black representing professionalism, white for clarity, and red adding a bold accent.
